Saturday, February 4, 2012– 1:30 p.m. to 5:00p.m. - Contacts and Weaves

Improve your contacts and weaves.

Carrie will give suggestions and help improve your existing contacts.

Dogs must be doing full height contacts and 6 weaves.

This seminar is appropriate for all levels

Sunday, February 5, 2012 – 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. - Masters/Excellent Handling

Dogs competing in USDAA Masters or AKC Excellent Standard. Challenging sequences and courses for the Masters/Excellent level dog and handler team. Emphasis on course analysis, ways to stay with or ahead of your dog, obstacle discrimination, consistent handling, and most importantly keeping your dog motivated!

About Carrie Jones:

She has been training and competing in agility since 1998. She is a creative and thorough handler, trainer, and instructor and teaches upper-level handling classes, as well as private lessons, seminars and camps throughout the country. Her goal is to help others create a successful working relationship with their dog through positive training and consistent handling. Carrie has successfully competed with three dogs-Tango (JRT), Twist (JRT), and Jive (BC). All of her dogs have earned their MACH and ADCH titles. At USDAA Nationals, she has been a finalist in Steeplechase and /or grand Prix(2003,2004,2007,2008,2009,2010) as well as winning the Team Championship in 2007. At AKC Nationals, she and her dogs have made multiple appearances in the finals and/or challengers round (2002,2003,2006,2007,2008,2009,2011), and was crowned the 2008 AKC 24" National Champion. She is a three-time AKC USA World Team member. She and Jive won a silver medal at the FCI Agility World Championships in Norway on the US Large Dog Team, as well as finishing 6th overall in the Individual Large division. She has represented the AKC at Crufts where she and Jive won the final agility round. At present, Carrie is training her newest addition, Ruger, a one year old Border Collie in agility.
