Tom Savarese presently resides in Cheraw, SC. He received a BS degree from Barry University and a MA from Webster University. He started competition obedience training in 1998 and has been competing in agility since 2001. Obedience can be boring and stressful for some dogs and handlers. Tom always tries to make it fun for both the handler and the dogs. When he heard about Rally, Tom saw this as a great way to introduce handlers and dogs to obedience. Rally also emphasizes TEAM. He started teaching Rally before AKC approved it. Tom would teach Rally after an obedience class and his students and their dogs loved it. As soon as AKC introduced Rally as a competition event, Tom was in the ring. He competed with his two Australian Shepherds, Panda and Indi, both of which loved Rally. Panda was awarded 1st place in 2006 in Advance B in the USASA Magazine. Both Panda and Indi received RAE titles the first year. Tom wanted to help Rally really get started so he became a Rally judge. Tom thinks that judging is great fun and also helps with his own training. He enjoys watching great teams work and learning from other teams working through problems. Tom's motto is:

No Stress + Fun + Teamwork + Obedience = Rally

Tom's Australian Shepherd Teammates are:
Panda RAE, CDX, AX, MXJ
Indi: RAE, UD, MX, MXJ
